Half Empty

Da Grym Reefer

(Verse 1)I'm half Malcolm
Half Kennedy
Friend
Half enemy
Band
Half symphony
Dope
Put simplyHalf coke
Half Earth
Half baking soda
Half a block
Half a key
Half the whole boulderHalf slave
Half king
Cuz split half with a queen
She fuck around an split the scene
With half of your cream
And half of your dreamsDon't believe half the shit you see this lifetime
And don't halfway believe
Half the shit you hear half the timeI keep an eye open
You halfway sleep
I don't spit raps at you
I halfway preach
To you shallow motherfuckas
Stay halfway deep
MotherfuckerThe Lord is my Shepard
As I awaken the sheep
Shallow niggaz can't follow
'Cuz I'm way too deepEverybody "keeping it real"
But grinning from cheek to cheek
If you was really real
It'll probably make you halfway weep(Hook)
Is this cup half-full or half-empty?
Is this clip half-full or half-empty?
Is this road half-full or half-empty?
Is your soul half-full or half-empty?(Verse 2)A kid dies
We halfway say shit
An innocent man is put to death
You halfway think he did it...And what good is innocence

When the world thinks you're guilty?
As about good as life
'Cuz the word wants to kill me
I know you niggaz feel me
I know you niggaz see it
How they wanna see me dead, broke,
And defeated
In no particular order
As long as I'm slaughtered
They say I break too many rules
And cross to many bordersMy death
I often thought of
When I go
How will I be thought of?Live long enough to die the villain
Or die the martyr
Will they remember me
A coward or a Sparta?
I could die today
But you could die tomorrowPeople are scared to die
But life is full of horror
Still it's worth living
Like there's no tomorrow
Try to minimize all the jealousy and envy
Cause you could have a million bucks
And STILL be half-empty(Hook)
