

Armor for Sleep

Armor for Sleep

Can i just be something Somewhere in your room
But you wont notice
Maybe ill be paper
Or books thrown on your floor Move me when you want to I'll lay where you put me
In your VCR
If i become a cassette
Or on top of your computer
If thats where i would fit
Then so be it
But things cant be perfect
All the time
That i know
Sometimes we just have to let some things go
I will not say one word Ill just hang around I wont annoy you at all
When you move out ill stay Until im thrown away
But then it wont matter
Things cant be perfect
All the time
That i know
Sometimes we just have to let some things go because things cant be perfect
all the time
that i know
i promise to stop now
to stop now
to stop now
that i know
sometimes we just have to let some things go

things cant be perfect
all the time
that i know
sometimes we just have to let some things go
letting go is my life ill be on my way
