

I'll Be Yours

Future

All the time that I see, give you my word that I be yours
A lot of niggas tryna catch up with that
But they ain't seen what I done seen up in these streets
Crack babies and dope house, how many you want
We grew up in the scrubs,
But now we at the dealership with all our friends,
Hollerin' now, how many you want
You electrical and exceptional and inside of you
Is an angel named St. Michael,
He say he's out to protect you and never lie to you
It's so hard to be faithful, but you sensitive,
You hold me down, so I'mma try for you
Come here, you swear I'll be yours, you swear I'll be yours
You drink and I'll be yours
You drink and I'll be yours
You ain't hearin' what I'm sayin'
You rockin', I be yours
You rockin', I be yours
Do that, everything that I need and I'll be yours
And you know you will, my word that I'll be yours,
My word that I'll be yours
And you know you feel it, my word that I'll be yours
That's my word
Even your friend got my back
She just met it, but she feel it
And she gon' see by this time next year
We gon' kill it
Audemars on your wrist, that's just something for the day
Driving Rolls for the week, in a 'Rari for the skeet
Got a condo for the month
You'll get massages for an hour
Red lipstick on my body print
I can smell you seducing, I promise
Come here, you swear I'll be yours, you swear I'll be yours
You drink and I'll be yours
You drink and I'll be yours
You ain't hearin' what I'm sayin'
You rockin', I be yours
You rockin', I be yours
Do that, everything that I need and I'll be yours
And you know you will, my word that I'll be yours,
My word that I'll be yours

And you know you feel it, my word that I'll be yours
That's my word
