

I Am A Pirate, You Are A Princess

PlayRadioPlay!

Is there a hole in your heart
Or am I mistaken
I can see your capillary veins
You be the patient, I'll be the surgeon
Just like 1st Grade on the playground all day And soon enough
You'll hear the blacktop calling for you
(For you)
(For you)
(For you)
After that there is not much else you can do I am a pirate
You are a princess
We could sail the seven seas
Bring back some presents for all the people
Everyone would love us
Even Courtney would love us I am a pirate
You are a princess
We could sail the seven seas
Bring back some presents for all the people
Everyone would love us
Even Courtney would love us Have you forgotten your place?
I'm being sarcastic
That step could kill the bus of kids Now we have a good thing
She is a bad thing
Why do you want to break us?
Who would want to break us? And soon enough
You'll hear the blacktop calling your name
Everyday, your life will never be the same I am a pirate
You are a princess
We could sail the seven seas
Bring back some presents for all the people
Everyone would love us
Even Courtney would love us I am a pirate
You are a princess
We could sail the seven seas
Bring back some presents for all the people
Everyone would love us
Even Courtney would love us I am a pirate
You are a princess
We could sail the seven seas

Bring back some presents for all the people
Everyone would love us
Even Courtney would love usI am a pirate
You are a princess
We could sail the seven seas
Bring back some presents for all the people
Everyone would love us
Even Courtney would love us
