

Leroy

Wheatus

He's got the dirtiest shoes that I ever seen;
Chew on a blunt wipe his butt with a magazine;
Smokin' his crack wash it down with gasoline;
Still he push the button,
E.F. Hutton when he speaks to me;
Oh you know he told me "Shake it, don't break it;
It took too damn long to make it"[Chorus]
Leroy is my mojo man;
Leroy is my mojo man,
He come he take me by the hand;
'Cause Leroy is my mojo man tonight, alright!He's just a pimp with a limp and some Vaseline;
He told me to "Look, over there!" and stole my nectarine;
Said, "Don't turn your back on me black, I'm a sex machine"
Still he push the button E.F. Hutton when he speaks to me;
Oh you know he told me,
"Shake it, don't break it; It took too damn long to make it"[Chorus]Oh you know he told me,
"Shake it, don't break it, it took too damn long to make it"
