Vibe

if you see a friend without a smile, give em one of yours turn up the radio, i got a message for america turn up the radio for the kids across the globe when you wake up just smile, when you wake up just smile because when you do, everything is cool

shown up try to learn things from the grown ups make money make moves it wont be so rough or maybe its rough becuase you aint smile so much, tell me is that the reason or am i out of touch, or out of moves, to continue to grove, we'll continue to move with our lips transfixed to a particular width cuz if you got a smile to give, i got a smile to get. look at us now, we've been smiled to grip, miss operator imma need a navigator to a place where the sun shines forever. where we can smile together no need to argue, let me borrow a smile from you and we'll all be cool. so just

when you wake up just smile, when you wake up just smile

shown up try to learn things form the grown ups but, maybe that why i drink to much, and uh, maybe thats why i think to much, such as life such as you. and you be so bright, with a body full of light and a smile full of life, the mind could invite a piece of glory, to the story for sure we forgot who we are on mondays, somedays we've been blinded by the sun rays, and one day you might find your sun rays live across the street, right beneath your teeth. and around this place where you glow might leave, welcome to the world and your finally free where you finally smile and your finally smile to be here right now, to be here right now, the best place to smile, is here. right. now.

when you wake up just smile, when you wake up just smile
because when you do, everything is cool

life aint easy
life aint easy
ay- ay- aye

life aint easy
life aint easy

(but)

so dont give up
learn how to love
smile for a while like you dont give a fuck dont give up

learn how to love
smile for a while like you dont give a motherfuck
