

Gone Lost Done

The Diamond Man Clan

Surrounded by the closest loving folk.

Here but on the other side my cloak.

In a yard all filled with family and friends,

I've never been lonelier than this. And I've realized...

Everyone I know has gone invisible.

They don't know I'm gone.

I'm lost, I won't come back until I'm done. It's meant to be a time for you and me so we can feel important and believed

The ones that are sincere, it's in their eyes, but most of them has made me realize... Everyone I know has gone invisible.

They don't know I'm gone.

I'm lost, I won't come back until I'm done.

Mmmngh...

Everyone I know has gone invisible.

They don't know I'm gone.

I'm lost, I won't come back until I'm done.
