Strike Back (feat. Ahren Gray)

Jonathan Young

Strike Back Lyrics
(I did the best I could.)

Whoa-oa-oa-oa-oa-oa-oa
Whoa-oa-oa-oa-oa-oa-oa
Whoa-oa-oa-oa-oa-oa-oa
Whoa-oa-oa

Strike back

I might not ever see the chance to change the course of history
But I will take that chance for even the slightest possibility.
I turned my back and left the fate
that I could have just accepted
Now I'll fight for the future
Next to you is where I need to be

Bring it on
Cuz im just gonna grow up in the battle
Pushing through the burning sky,
burning my fire.
A dragon slashing through the sky,
Im shredding up this nightmare!
I wanna see what's in heaven!
Living to die,
Living now that we are living.
I aint scared of my past.
For the future im giving up,
Screaming out for my pride!

Don't let your tears begin to fall,
I will be screaming for you all the way!
(We'll never be able to tell
when will I be strained from my destiny)

Your smile will never let me fall,
With you behind me I'll go all the way!
(I got a bust out the pain for you and me

we wont grief we rest in peace.)

No matter what it takes

And even in the corner of my heart
Ive beat my bloody fists on walls.
Disregard the chances,
Im never turning back at all.
Even when the pouring rain
of reason starts to fall,
All i know i wont ever hesitate
when the chance to change our future calls.

So im going as the day breaks, soldiers follow me now!
Don't you ever stumble or you'll pay it back at expense, now!
Pay back fast, ain't failing you, worthless.
No, men, I won't live in sadness.
Walk off, you all, disappear with the rest,
but you can't fight if there's fire in my chest.
So scream, ready for your fight!

I light my fire standing tall,
My heart will keep on burning all the way.
(Nobody can put out my fire, get away,
so get back to a safe place.)

I'm never loose inside at all
and I won't hesitate; go all the way.
(Don't blind your eyes if you've lost tonight,
you know i'm gonna be your light.)

So take my hand!

Hey what are we living for?
Haha!
I live for this shit!

We're gonna
Stand up and go with the pride,
It's like the clouds get sucked in sunrise.

We're gonna
Stand up and go with the pride,
It's like the clouds get sucked in sunrise.

Don't let your tears begin to fall,

I will be screaming for you all the way!
(We'll never be able to tell
when will I be strained from my destiny)

Your smile will never let me fall,
With you behind me ill go all the way!
(I got a bust out the pain for you and me
we wont grief we rest in peace.)

I light my fire standing tall,
My heart will keep on burning all the way.
(Nobody can put out my fire, get away,
so get back to a safe place.)

I'm never loose inside at all
and I won't hesitate; go all the way.
(Don't blind your eyes if you've lost tonight,
you know i'm gonna be your light.)

So take my hand!ï»¿
