

Falling In Hate

Five Finger Death Punch

Falling in hate with you and more and more every day
Falling away from this in every way
Is it right? Is it wrong?
You and I don't belong
Falling in hate, nothing to say, don't wanna hear you
Falling away, nothing to give, no
Falling in hate, nothing but fear in your heart
Falling away, nothing to live for
To you it's a game, to me it's a joke
A mile to hang by with one inch of rope
Is it wrong? Is it right?
You and I, day and night

Falling in hate, nothing to say, don't wanna hear you
Falling away, nothing to give, no
Falling in hate, nothing but fear in your heart
Falling away, nothing to live for
Boom, hate, break, [Incomprehensible], yeah
Despite what you think of me and despite what you say
I gave you everything and you threw it away
Falling in hate, nothing to say, don't wanna hear you
Falling away, nothing to give, no
For falling in hate, nothing but fear in your heart
For falling away, nothing to live for
