Down To My Last

Alter Bridge

To the ones in which we sing
We are honored you let us in
I remember the thoughts of many things
Of the glory that you bring
I was never the right one to dare to dream
It's funny what this life has done to me now
You were always the only to help me see
That was a road I must find, a road that was mine
But I'm down to my last
I'm standing here alone
Looking back on it all
But I'm down to my last
I'm ready but I'm wrong
And I'm blind to it all
And to the ones in which we sing
Ones who tried to do us in
I remember your name and I know your face
I can't forgive and can't erase
I was never the right one to bear the weight
Of something fueled by words I learned to hate
You were always the only to help me see
That to love is to shine, in your world I'm blind
But I'm down to my last
I'm standing here alone
Looking back on it all
But I'm down to my last
I'm ready but I'm wrong
And I'm blind to it all
But I'm down to my last
I'm ready but I'm wrong
And I'm scared of it all
But I'm down to my last
I'm ready but I'm wrong
And I'm blind to it all
But I'm down to my last
I'm ready but I'm wrong
And I'm blind to it all
