

Deep In the Night

Barbra Streisand

Deep in the night I remember that I'm reaching for you
Wanting to turn to you, that's all I want, oh so much
Deep in the night I need you to touch meDeep in the night, I wait for daylight
Day times I always get through
But when the sun goes down that's when I feel, I feel cold and old
Deep in the night I need you to hold meRead a book and I think about you
Put it down and I think about you
I make some coffee and I think about you
Wash out the cup and I think about youWind the clock I think about you
Turn out the light and I think about you
Then I punch the pillow and think about you
