

Hello Goodbye

Cheyenne Kimball

Am I speaking Japanese?
I told you 20 times a week
But you still don't get itIt doesn't mean that I'm not sad
But I know what we had went bad
And you still, you don't get itHello, hello, hello, I'm saying
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
But you're staying
I know, I know, I know
You've been hoping
I promise my door's not openHello, hello, hello, I'm saying
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
But your staying
I know, I know, I know
You've been waiting
Hello, goodbye, nothing's changingShowing up outside my house
And coming over unannounced man
You are so crazyAnd then you try to beg my brain
The information is the same
You and I don't belong
Well, this fight, now, is wrong
And if you feel I've led you on
You misread itHello, hello, hello, I'm saying
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
But you're staying
I know, I know, I know
You've been hoping
I promise my door's not openHello, hello, hello, I'm saying
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
But your staying
I know, I know, I know
You've been waiting
Hello, goodbye, nothing's changingI'm sorry, we don't feel the same
I don't wanna hurt you
I just want you to go awayHello, hello, hello, I'm saying
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
But you're staying
I know, I know, I know
You've been hoping
I promise my door's not openHello, hello, hello, I'm saying

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye
But your staying
I know, I know, I know
You've been waiting
Hello, goodbye, nothing's changingHello, hello, hello
Hello, hello, hello
