Unglued (Performance Track In Key of Db)

Tait

Restless and alone
A weary soul has traveled home
What am I to do
In a world without You?I don't wanna believe
I turned around and You're gone
All the sweet memories
Of loving You for so longBut sometimes it's hard
And most times I cry
But God holds this heart of mine
He feels the pain insideBroken and undone
You were the One we counted on
You taught us how to say
I love YouAnd then You showed us how to pray
I dont wanna believe, no, no
I turned around and You're gone
All the sweet memories
Of loving You for so longSometimes it's hard, ooh
Most times I cry
But God holds this heart of mine
And He heals the pain I hideSometimes it's hard, so hard
Most times I cry
But God knows this heart of mine
He feels the pain inside
