Waiting On a War

36 Crazyfists

I am waiting on a war, this is panic setting in
I am waiting on a war, this is panic setting inFrom what it seems all could use some cleansing
Better hurry up since we're not pretending
And panic wouldn't mean so much
If there was such a thing as end in sightBut I know it's only coming in waves
To seal our silenceWe're waiting on a war
Coming through this weather, all aboard
We're waiting on a war
Coming through this weather, all aboard
Into the stormWith all of this brings a death descending
Belief with the sun comes never ending
As long as there is life in hearts
There will be a thing as endless fightBut I know it's only coming in waves
To seal our silenceWe're waiting on a war
Coming through this weather, all aboard
We're waiting on a war
Coming through this weather, all aboardIt's only here I find myself where karma looms
A long way down, a long way out
Come and lock us inWhile we're waiting, seems like a lifetime
But while we're waiting, all aboardWe're waiting on a war
Were coming through this weather, all aboard
Horizons from the shore
Too many bloody hands, take back your lifeWe're waiting on a war
We're coming through this weather, all aboard
Into the storm
