I'm Not Crying Over You

Daniel Romano

When she left me, she thought that I was hurting
She heard that I been crying to her friends
But the truth is I just got a new job acting
So any tear that rolls my cheek is just pretendI gotta role in some romantic movie
A broken hearted man unlike myself
Well it's hard for me to relate
So I practice night and day
And that's why I've been crying oh so wellI'm not crying over you,
I'm not crying over you,
You might think so, but you're wrong
No that feeling's dead and gone
This crying is just a role I'm working onWell she said she saw me weeping in a bar room
She said she saw me sobbing all alone
But if she knew the truth about my crying
She'd pack her things and come back to our homeBecause I got a roll in some romantic movie,
A broken hearted man I unlike myself
Now she'll see me on the screen and take back everything
She'll come back to the man that treats her wellI'm not crying over you,
I'm not crying over you,
You might think so, but you're wrong
No that feeling's dead and gone
This crying is just a role I'm working on Yes this crying is just a role I'm working on

Songwriters
DANIEL ROMANOPublished by Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/