

How Could You Know

High Highs

We used to meet
Alone on the clifftops
Looking down at the sea
Every part of me Was so completely

Open

Hoping

We'd collect me
And move through the silence

I won't let that go
Won't let it fall away Ooooh

Eeh

Hold me in your arms
Say How could you know?
How could you know?
That I loved you so
It's falling rain
Lately I hide And all that you know

Look in my eyes
The freedom to let go
Before the morning
She knows me well
Salty summer
Oh how it felt

I won't let that go
Won't let it fall away Oooh
Eeh

Hold me in your arms
Say How could you know?
How could you know?

That I loved you so? It's falling rain It's time.

It's falling rain It's time.

It's falling rain It's time.

It's falling rain It's time. It's falling rain It's time.

It's falling rain It's time.

It's falling rain It's time.

It's falling rain-ain
