

Say Goodbye

No Angels

Chorus:

Who's sorry now?

You'd better learn how to say goodbye!

(see you later, now it's over)

All chances gone.

You'd better move on and try to find another love.

It's time to say goodbye! What is wrong with you?

Why you're acting like a fool?

You don't need to hide, all the things you keep inside.

'cause now I know, baby I was right.

You were playing with my mind and I already know.

So now it's time to go.....Chorus All the time I thought, boy I messed it up.

'cause you tried to blame me for, not trusting you no more.

But now I see, all the time you lied.

All the time that I have cried, while you were having fun

'cause I was not your only one!Chorus Now I wanna let you know

I don't need you anymore.

'cause I don't need your lies, now pay the price for tearing up my heart.

I don't need your poor excuse, baby this time you will loose.

'cause now I'm strong to carry on without you by my side!
