

Sweet Surrender

Jaci Velasquez

Its not a mysterious wind, and its not the thunder rollin in
Its a spirit that I feel within thats callin
I understand but I cant explain, now I see love in a different way
And with a single leap of faith, Im fallin into Your loving arms
Showing no resistance, theres a peace that flows over meSweet surrender, love me tender
You have captured my desiring heart completely
Sweet surrender, yours forever
I will gladly give my all to You
Receive me, oh Lord, I am ever YoursYour love offers no escape, but I dont feel the need to run away
My heart has found a place to stay here with You
Nothing else could satisfy, the deep void that I had inside
From all the worldly battles I had lived through
Now here in Your loving arms, I have gone the distance
I will rest my soul in Your embraceSweet surrender, love me tender
You have captured my desiring heart completely
Sweet surrender, yours forever
I will gladly give my all to You
Receive me, ohYes, I have gone the distance
I will rest my soul in Your embraceOh, oh, sweet surrender, love me tender
You have captured my desiring heart completely
Oh Lord, I am ever Yours
Oh Lord, I am ever Yours
