Freedom

Joi

Turn me loose set me free, from the chains that bind me let me run to my own direction let me go set me free from all this prropaganda and lies that your peope try to teach meI know why you would like to keep me down because I have all the dibs on you you try to tell me that my life ain't worth a damn, but I know much better and so I'm gonna take myChorusFreedom take it from you since you won't give it
Freedom
FreedomAll this time, you been tellin' me these lies but now I've finally figured out your game thought that I would never wise up but I showed you what a black female can do her thang then I would continue to keep me oppressed but I ain't goin' out like that all these lies and all this propaganda that you want me to take, I;m gonna take myFreedom Freedom for my body Freedom for my mind Freedom for my spiritto write what I wanna write to read what I wanna read freedom to say what I wanna say give me all of my Freedomtake it back take it back
all that shit that you been doin' to me, yeah
take it back
'cause now I'm wiser if you don't give it I'm gonna take itFreedom Freedom
