L5P (Lonely Five Points)

Brother Hawk

Sound of cars rushing by,
is all I have to keep me company at night.
I toss and turn, try to close my eyes. Nothing seems to block out the light.I dream of flying in the moonlight.
I dream of sleeping next to you at night.The heat of the day is coming through my blinds.
So is the sound of the city coming to life.
All I need are some comforting sounds.
All I need is you to be here now.I dream of flying in the moonlight.
I dream of sleeping next to you at night.
