

The Coast No Man Can Tell

Bill Fay

It's time to leave and say goodbye, at least for now you fought the battle most of your life and you still fight it now soon you will be leaving for the coast but it's a coast no man can tell it's the end of life on this earth and my brother I deeply fare you well you will always stay in my heart as I hope a willing wish until that day we walk through the fields when all of God's promises are fulfilled soon you'll be leaving for the coast
