

Did It Play?

Robert Pollard

Was there anything happening
When you walked away?
Any strange sounds coming back at you?
Your recollection is valuable
A discussion can be productive
Let me assist you
For your very existence relies on it
Did it play?
One year ago today
One month from tomorrow
I'll package your sorrow
And market your failure
