

But It Was Close

Onlinedrawing

What was it about those lies?
You let me know, now I know
If I could just cry you underwater It's not so much when now as finding the right wayIt wasn't all lies, but it was close I wouldn't always be there to bury my ghosts
But you weren't even close to finding the right wayBut you would always end up blame-free, needle on Just when I was finally finding something all my ownFinding the right way
Now I know
Carry now, carry now
Now I know
You let me know
