

The Man Who Broke His Own Heart (Acoustic)

Everclear

I know you want to be my almost instant karma
I know you want to be the one that made me pay
I know you think you are the one that made me break
I was broken when you met me, I'm finding pieces every day I know you want to be my almost nervous breakdown
I know you really want to give me all your pain
I know you think you are the one that knocked me down
You think you made me lose my mind, I think you better get in line I know deep down you really want to punish me
For the way I used to be, yeah
I don't blame you for being angry
I treated you bad, you wasted time, you tried too hard
You fell for the man who broke his own heart
Whoa
I'm the man who broke his own heart I know you want to be my "wish I never met you"
I know you want to be the worst thing in my life
I know you think you are the reason I can't sleep at night
I wish I was that simple, I've been like this for my whole life I hope someday you will see me as I really am
A sad and twisted man
I tried to be just what you wanted me to be
I lied to you, I played the part
You fell for the man who broke his own heart
Whoa
I'm the man who broke his own heart I'm the man who broke his own heart I hope someday you will come to see
I am not the scary monster
You have made me out to be
I don't blame you for being angry
I treated you bad, you wasted time
You tried too hard
You fell for the man who broke his own heart Whoa
I'm the man who broke his own heart
