Brian & Tim's Excellent Adventure

9 o'clock Tuesday night and there's nothing to do sitting home watching t.v. with nothing to do the phone rings but who the hell could it be i think that Brian's gonna get me in his V.W.B. when sudenly there's a knock at my door you know i'll grab my board, i won't need nothing more we're not looking for girls, we're not trying to score we're just looking for the spot that's gonna leave us in awe speed bombing, our fun is insured skate bombing, we're never bored good times, at home and abroad Brian and Tim's own adventure

Go to honey well on the banks we will carve seems like for the perfect spot we're always gonna starve searching all night till our legs ache and swell then we'll hop back in the bus and go to "Taco Bell"
