Permission

Kaylee + Erica

Permission
Come and do what You want to do.
Come and say what You want to say.
Come and heal what You want to heal
We give You permission.

There is a door that's opening.
It's full of the things weâ€™ve never seen
Miracles, signs and glory
And You hold the key to everything
We wanna walk through it.

Come and do what You want to do.
Come and say what You want to say.
Come and heal what You want to heal
We give You permission.
Come release what should be released
Come reveal what should be revealed
Come and be who You want to be
We give You permission

We give You permission to have Your way, have Your way
