Take A Number

DJ Medieval

Never even knew what you meant to convey
You handed us a retrospect 'til you didn't have a thing to say
No one questions you, even someone set out to do
Now it's nothing but dead and goneLet's go
Let's go
Let's go
Let's goI don't want a love that the world's ever seen
You wanted all the recognition until you lost the means
No one talks to you, even someone set out to do
Take a number, your time has come'Cuz you're another one
And you're another soul to feed to the man's machine
You're another one
You're another soul to feed to the man's machineMy excuses lay me down
My emotions make me drown
My endeavor takes blame
At least I have a name'Cuz you're another one
And you're another soul to feed to the man's machine
'Cuz you're another one
And you're another soul to feed to the man's machine
'Cuz you're another one
