

Angelina

Dave Dobbyn

There goes your tenderness
Cast it out like a net, see what you get
Without any regret
There's a lot to forget in tenderness I see you walking on a wind-swept beach
Your eyes wide open to the Sun
I see you running with the one you love
Unaware of the author of your fun Angelina, fly
Angelina, fly There goes your doom and gloom
You've got no more room, it's too familiar
I walk on tenterhooks
Your crazy looks one in a million I see you walking on a wind-swept beach
Your eyes wide open to the Sun
I see you running with the one you love
Unaware of the author of your fun Angelina, fly
Angelina, fly
Don't stop and wonder why,
Just fly Angelina,
Angelina,
Angelina,
Angelina
