

Cats vs. Wolves

Adore Me Not

Don't close your eyes, I've got something for you turn on the lights, I need to put you through Another wolve in my bed
Tries to steal the heart that I will never have A gentle touch still catches my breath
We linger in the deep woods 'till we burn to deathâ€”We'll burn to deathâ€”â€”This love is so full of something to sacrificeâ€”You'll have to trust
Think of my anemic lullabies
We've heard a million times before, yeah yeah yeah
Pure love is what I'm looking for These little games seem to have no end
If that's no game you play then don't pretend Another cat tries to scratchâ€”A mouth full of joy just won't bring her back This ain't no relation
Nothing to hold on tight
Don't fear to come too close
My teeth will hurt you not that much
Than all those words you've heard before, yeah yeah yeah
Pure love is what you're asking for?â€”â€”I've got evil things on my mind
Don't think too much
We're two of a kind Stitches and scratches
All over your body
These stitches and scratches
All over your body
Won't hurt you as much as the one you look up to
You really should have known I've got evil things on my mind
Don't think too much
We're two of a kind Don't think!
We're two of a kind
Don't think we're two of a kind
