Nightmare Lake

Cemetary

Within the cave of sleep lies the horrid ones in the deep in a city just to be found within the dreams of unholy groundSo sleep between these sheets of chill and sleep forever is what you will like a silent voice from a memory these waves of slumber are drowning theeHear the lake it is calling thee to be part of the dreaming citySo do not fear these waves of horrid sleep as you disappear into the deep Hear the lake it is calling thee so follow the cantor to the dreaming city
