When It Rains

Nadia Ali

What a mark carved on my heart
I was struck by cupid's darts
Hit so fast I did not see
Before I knew, love captured me
Believe me this was not my choice
I did my best to quite the noise
Will ever he know what he's done?
The depth in which this potion runs
When it rains, it pours down
It won't stop from coming now
When it rains there's a flood

I am all drowned in your love
Every dawn gives way to dusk
With each story endings come
With the ticking of the clock
I long for another touch
Could I have known this fate at all?
I did not know I'd get caught up
Every sunset brings forth light
And soon enough my sun will rise
Heaven knows this only the beginning
I can all ready see where this is heading

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/