Tale of Mass Deception

Street Dogs

An elaborate con of the common man
Propelled by your massive media plan
I can see your hostile takeover, greed, and your lies
Turning what I love into what I despise(Chorus)
It's a tale of mass deception, destruction, corruption
And I'm under the assumption through government will function
By a clear and present danger, I'm fearing a stranger
Corporation of fear and mind controlThey gotta goYou're telling lies to cover all those tracks
But it's misinformation, any honesty it lacks
Your faces now testify how it all went wrong
A nation taken for a ride and strung along(Chorus)Suffering the wrath or the imminent collapse
The result for the ignorance of assorted past
Will I watch it all crash? Your departure at long last?
Only the yearn for some honesty here.So you got the dictator, but why go lie
About the poison, the atomic fry
Went on PR tour with honchos in tow
Told the world a big lie about all that you know.(Chorus)Tale of mass deception, tale of mass deception (x4)
