Ad Infinitum

Carla Bley

Feels like talking to a wall that's rising out of control like the fish's mind growing numb from circling the bowl come on now gimme a reason that makes me wanna move on that makes me wanna fight again just tell it like it isgimme a signal show me a sign I've been waiting patiently I'm running dry still I bleed an everflowing streamIt's like losing all you unconditionally love It's not the puzzle that's to blame when the pieces won't fall into place come on now gimme a reason that makes me wanna move on
that makes me wanna fight again just tell it like it is comegimme a signal show me a sign I've been waiting patiently I'm running dry still I bleed an everflowing streamI can't take it anymore there's fire in the hole get downgimme a signal show me a sign I've been waiting patiently I'm running dry still I bleed an everflowing streamgimme a signal show me a sign I've been waiting patiently I'm running dry still I bleed an everflowing streamJust tell it like it is come on tell it like it is
I would kill for it
