Girl, you mean the world to me!
You hold me down while I'm out in these streets.
I hope you know that you're [?]
Yeah, that's why I love you so much! Can I talk to you baby?
Listen! Hey, girl!
What you say, girl!
I can't get you off my mind!
While I'm out here doing my thing,
I need to take a little time,
Just to show you how you make me feel!
This feeling is so real and ain't no pressure, you complete me!
How about I let my heart speak for me!
Girl, you mean the world to me!
You hold me down while I'm out in these streets.
I hope you know that you're [?]
Yeah, that's why I love you so much! Listen, you are the reason,
My heart never skips a beat!
And I realize it's the reason
I found a girl that's meant for me!
A precious lover, your love is so priceless.
I'll stand on top of any mountain
Shout it out for the world to hear: Girl, you mean the world to me!
You hold me down while I'm out on these streets.
I hope you know that you're [?]
Yeah, that's why I love you so much!
Say I may keep it all the way real,
With your every king need a real queen, nigger!
That can ride when the roads get rough,
Even take the wheel and drop for the [?]
See, I've been around the world and came back again,
But no matter what I say, I never [?]
That's the real jeez, get the bread and bring it back home,
Kiss the wife and kids, and then he's back gone.
See, I'm a hustler, so I'm always on a mission,
And every day grind just to stay in this position.
I know the inner states, all over the map.
But no matter how nice the weather and the [?]
[?] that I forget that I'm in my seat.
Everything I need and she's down like the [?]

That's why I made her a wife instead of a baby mother
I love her! Girl, you mean the world to me!
You hold me down while I'm out on these streets.
I hope you know that you're [?]
Yeah, that's why I love you so much!
