

Redemption (feat. Jacob Banks)

Sigma & Diztortion

This ain't about your love
This is about the life that we've been told
This ain't about your freedom
This is about the future that's unknown
This ain't about your forgiveness
This is about the life between my bones
This ain't about your sanity
This is about the thing you think you know
For every time I fell out to my knees
I know this is redemption
Oh oh, for every time I said out loud my tears
I know this is redemption
Oh oh, ... is coming down
We're gonna burn it down down down
For every time I lost my voice,
Oh lord, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption
For every time I lost my voice,
Oh lord, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption, ey
This ain't about your history
This is for all our stories to be told
This ain't about your victory
This is about the place that we call home
So, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption
And I'd better tell 'em already
They will never stop me,
They will never bring this down
If it's now you know I'm ready
This fire in my belly
They will never bring this down

Oh, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption
For every time I lost my voice,

Oh lord, this is redemption
So we singing oh-oh-oh
Redemption
Redemption
Redemption
So we singing oh-oh-oh
Oh, this is redemption
Oh, this is redemption
For every time I lost my voice,
Oh lord, this is redemption
