

The Autograph

J. Cole

[J.Cole]They say anythings possible, you gotta dream like you never seen obstacles chasing obscene profits so we ain't stopping for the red lights look in my rear view all I see is n-ggas headlights catch me if you can hoe they try and sack me and I scramble look up in the sky you'll see exactly where I am bo hey, don't you see me man?
making my wishes come true with no genie man I got the keys to my beamer with no Beanie Man I'm on these rich n-ggas ass no bikini man I bring the real to the day the Lord free me man never imagined that the kids would wanna be me man eh, could it be that I give the hopeless broke kids, hope caught me walking through the mall, looking like he seen a ghost silly head to approach, whats up young blood aint it strange, a year ago today I was counting change yeah hopping trains up in New York city though I gotta thank God cause if you weren't with me than I surely woulda died you can throw the fork in me this my New Years resolution, dawg no more Pork in me uh, I aint no Muslim though Kuran butler I'm a wizard if he doesnt know its young Simba, I'm ballin' til the buzzard blow you try and kick the shit I kick you gon stub your toe boy thats just how tough I go see this is my life work this shit you callin classic, I be like that mic work want you to feel something new, thats how a dike work and ask me bout pressure, they wanna see my pipe burst not tonight n-gga
yeah, hey
hey, man, hey Man, I rap so vicious but I talk so politely never met a baby momma, momma who don't like me met a couple baby fathers though they wanna fight me

I hit her til she snooze, like the news n-gga nightly send her back to you when she no longer excites me no she bitter with this n-gga cause he aint quite me one things for certain baby, you are a wifey two things for f-cking sure I am not the husband thoguh so run back to him while you still can he sticking with his wife and kid, yeah thats a real man I was ashamed all along and I still am we let the lust interupt something real, damn girl we grown so you gotta play your own position I wouldn?t say that you a hoe, just made a hoe decision eh, you can blame it on the liquor like a prohibitions we both know thats what you wanted girl I know you listening
hey girl I know you listening uh I know you listening hey, yeah

Shout out to the bootleggers who supply my shit the fans online trying to find my shit and to then-ggas listening but wont buy my sh-t and catch me in the street wanna ride my d-ck y?all n-ggas is the worst, see me like ?J. Cole homie, can you sign my burnt CD? n-gga please, an album ten dollars you act like it?s ten g?s this food for thought cost the same as 2 numbers three?s so at ease with that broke shit we all tryna get a dollar boy, no sh-t you know I feel ya pain, thats why I slang this hope sh-t and give you lines that you rewind and think oh sh-t these rappers talk a lot of money, cars and hoes sh-t I give you that and a whole lot more sh-t than got richer and still rapping like I?m poor sh-t you n-ggas thinnk you know sh-t, n-gga you don?t know sh-t hoe bitch!!!
Yeah, Cole Bitch!!!
J Cole n-gga
