

Leavin' A Lonely Town

Easton Corbin

Mama's standin' at the old screen door
With a dish rag in her hand
Cryin' like I never seen her cry before
Like she don't understand why I'm leavin' a lonely town
I'm leavin' a lonely town My old man he's workin' on his truck
Ain't never had much to say
Just shakes my hand and wishes me luck
And watches me walk away, yeah I'm leavin' a lonely town
I'm leavin' a lonely town Drivin' one last time down Main Street
Past the cafe on the square
Go slow by the window cause I know she's Waitin' tables in there, but I'm leavin' a lonely town
She knows, I'm leavin' a lonely town
I'm leavin' a lonely town
Lord, I'm leavin' a lonely town Mama's standin' at the old screen door
Cryin' like I never seen her cry before
Lonely town, lonely town
Lonely town

Songwriters

CARSON CHAMBERLAIN, MARK D. SANDERS, EASTON CORBIN Published by

Lyrics Â© BMG RIGHTS MANAGEMENT US, LLC Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.

Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>