

Pressure

Brother Cane

See I'm just a broken man
Not asking for favors or a lendin' hand
I can't hide the doubt, or disguise what you're about
Still I can't keep you from fallin' out
    Oh, about last night
When comfort's heard all your stories
    Your're not a virgin anymore
    It's not encouraging
    To be pushedand antagonized
    You're still afraid
To make your own choicePrecious moments,
    Don't want to pressure you
    Precious moments,
    Don't alwys carry truthNo more beggin'
    No more greed
    No more prayin' that you'll believe
I'm trying hard but see I'm not that kind
    It's time for me to let life unwind
    When all is said and done
    Look 'round at all the pieces
And find another frozen promise in the hazeYou can't stand to feel at home
    With just yourself to wonder
This broken carousel will never be the samePrecious moments,
    Don't want to pressure you
    Precious moments,
    Don't alwys carry truth
    Precious moments,
    Don't want no pressure
    Don't need no pressure
I can't take no pressure from youYou can't stand to feel at home
    With just yourself to wonder
This broken carousel will never be the samePrecious moments,
    Don't want to pressure you
    Precious moments,
    Don't alwys carry truth
