

Don't Go Off Wandering

Limp Bizkit

Everyday is nuthin' but stress to me
I'm constantly dwellin' on how you got the best of me
Wanna know somethin' I can't believe
The way you keep testin' me and mentally molestin' me
Would you think any less of me
If I said that I'd be there
Would you think any less of me
If I said I really cared
Of course you would 'cause you
Only want what you can't have
As for me I'm stuck with my dick in my hand
Because You don't feel nuthin' at all
You don't feel nuthin' at all Maybe there's more to life than it seems
I'm constantly runnin' from reality chasin' dreams
Wanna know somethin' I can't believe
Just how much misery comes with humility
Do you think any less of me
Now that I'm gone
Look at me now, everything is gone
I can't seem to do anything right
But I figured out why you don't let me inside
Because You don't feel nuthin' at all
You don't feel nuthin' at all You need nothing from me now
So you think I'm useless to you now
But I need one thing from you now
I insist that you feel me now
You said, you said, you said you needed me
You said, you said, you said, you said You don't feel nuthin' at all
You don't feel nuthin' at all
