Missing You

Dan Fogelberg

Hard days, I'm traveling alone for too long
Ooh, I'm missing you
I'm always somewhere that I never belong
Ooh, I'm missing youI'm moving so fast now, it doesn't seem true
Ooh, I'm missing you
I'm getting closer but I don't know what to
Ooh, I'm missing youOhh ho, if I had you beside me
Then I just might sleep through the night
Your love is the promise that guides me
All of the days of my lifeThis life I'm living's getting so hard to feel
Ooh, I'm missing you
The days are empty and the nights are unreal
Ooh, I'm missing youOhh ho, if I had you beside me
Then I just might sleep through the night
Your love is the promise that guides me
All of the days of my life, all of the days of my lifeHard days, I'm traveling alone for too long
Ooh, I'm missing you
I'm always somewhere that I never belong
Ooh, I'm missing youOhh ho, if I had you beside me
Then I just might sleep through the night
Your love is the promise that guides me
All of the days of my life, all of the days of my life
All of the days of my life
