

I Will Go Anywhere With You

Julia Nunes

I awoke to dreams passing by at the speed of sixty-five it took a while to realize where I had spent the night through sunlight I squint my eyes to see you by my side just sit back and enjoy the rideI don't need a bed, no I'm not tired yet so go full speed ahead, we'll end up where we get

and as we bid adieu to the towns that we're passing through

I don't care where we're headed to I will go anywhere with youLooking down as we fly through the night over the Rochester skyline it all looks different from this height, a city simplified every home a tiny light, with a family inside so we wave goodbye to mineI don't need a bed, no I'm not tired yet so go full speed ahead, we'll end up where we get

and as we bid adieu to the towns that we're passing through

I don't care where we're headed to I will go anywhere with youAnd the bags they packed for weeks at a time even though I'll be back I'll leave them cause

I don't know when I'll be taking off againI don't need a bed, no I'm not tired yet

and as we bid adieu to the towns that we're passing through

I don't care where we're headed to I will go anywhere with you
