Deadly Sins

Nancial

Emptiness is filling my soul
The world is going down
Everyone has gone
I want to know what is going on
I want to throw all the feelings away
To become senseless
And not to be afraid
My body is bleeding
and I don't feel pain
I don't need a savior
death take me away
Lie!
greed, lust, sloth, gluttony,
wrath, envy, pride
Lie!
I don't need a help!
I don't want to be here anymore
All hope is gone
All things are done
I become free
No pain I can feel
And every sin I've done
Is just gone...
