

365 Days

Leon Thomas III

Monday,
Well baby I fell for you(yeah)Tuesday
I wrote you this song,(oohh)Wednesday
I waited outside your door,
Even though I knew it was wrong,7 days a week,
Every hour of the month,
Gotta let you know,
where my heart,
Is coming from,I shouldn't feel this way,
But I just gotta say,
I gotta let you know baby,I will try
Everything,
To make you come
Closer to meAnd maybe make
You believe
It's not just a phase,How can I keep you baby
Get it through
To tell you
What I can't loseI will try 365 days, 365 ways to get to youYeah, to get to
You,you,you,you
BabyEvery second,every tick tick of the clock
I want you all
To myself
(All to my self)Every second
Every tick tick of
The clockI just can't Handle myself,
Feeling kinda guilty
But girl I can't stopGirl I don't want
Nobody else,
No one else,
No one else...I will try
Everything,
To make you come
Closer to meI'll try 365 days...
365 ways to get to you
