

Father's Love

Cloverton

Three feet tall and full of questions
You must have thought I was the smartest man alive
I didn't always have the answers
To every little how and where and why

Like "Daddy, why's the sky so blue today?"
"Does Jesus really hear me when I pray?"
"When I grow up, will I be just like you?"
"Will I be tall and strong and brave?"

Chorus 1:

There is no power on earth
like your fathers' love
So big and so strong as your father's love
A promise that's sacred,
a promise from heaven above
No matter where you go... always know You can depend on your father's love

Especially when it's cold, especially when you're lonely When your little heart is lost trying to find it's way
I know the world is always changing
But, remember son, that some things never change

And even when my life on earth is through There will still be a part of me in you 'Cause some things are forever
Nothing's ever gonna take my love from you

Chorus 2:

There is no power on earth
like your father's love
So big and so strong as your father's love
A promise that's sacred,
a promise from heaven above
Did I hug enough, did I care enough

When you most needed me,
Was I there enough Enough to make you feel the power of Your father's love
