

Happens All The Time (Album Version)

Cold

I still hang on every word
In a world of faded memories
Where you're still in love with me
I can see it in your eyes
A look as if your major tom has lost control I must hold on
This happens all the time
I still find my faith in you
I can't hold on
This happens all the time
I still find my way to you If the dreams all that I got
Then I wish you in a fairy tale
Where you're still in love with me
I can see it in your eyes
A look as if your hero fell and lost his soul I must hold on
This happens all the time
I still find my faith in you
I can't hold on
This happens all the time
I still find my way to you
