

Watch Me Go

A Burning Century

When you are alone
When you are alone
When you are alone and tired
When you are alone
When you are alone
When you are alone and tired

Don't you wonder what I'm doing
I am making a new start
I have left a dying planet
I have left a broken heart

Pushing up against the ceiling
Swimming hard against the tide
Doesn't matter what you're feeling
I have said my last good- (bye)

Time to change
Time to grow
You said I couldn't but I can
Watch me go

You'll surrender to an ocean
Strength of body, strength of mind
Heartbreak is my magic potion
One dose, and I feel alright
I feel alright

I will miss every kiss
Every song unsung
I will be all I need
I'll be everyone

Now I know the world is dreaming
Every thought is justified
No relief until I'm bleeding
Out this thing that lives in-(side)

Time to change
Time to grow

You said I couldn't but I can
Watch me go

Watch me go
