

Big Man

PEACH KELLI POP

Here comes a big big, big man
His knuckles swing low, low
When he asks me to go
He calls me ugly when I say no
Here come's the man, to interrupt you, to cross the line
Here comes the man, he assures you everything will be just fine.
Here comes a big big, big man,
tells me what I can and cannot do,
who my body belongs to,
Cuz I don't seem to have a clue.
Here comes the man, to interrupt you, to cross the line
Here comes the man, he assures you everything will be just fine
Here comes the man, to interrupt you, to cross the line
Here comes the man, he assures you everything will be just fine
