

All the Love I Am

Janin Devi & Thomas Riedel

Diving deep down to the ground
No need to breath
No time to lose
There's no fear
Nothing to choose

I'm diving deep down to the ground
No need to breath
No time to choose
There is no fear
Nothing to choose

And then I watch my body self with the eyes of love and deep compassion
Fill my heart and soothe my skin
And I remember I can heal with so much trust
And without fear
To be myself and to live my truth
To rediscover all the love I am and let it flow again

I'm diving deep down to the ground
No need to breath
No time to lose
There is no fear
Nothing to choose

I'm diving deep down to the ground
No need to breath
No time to lose
There is no fear
Nothing, nothing to choose

And then I watch my body self with eyes of love and deep compassion
I fill my heart and sooth my skin
I remember I came here with so much trust and without fear
To by myself, to live my truth
To rediscover all that I am and let it flow again
All that I am and let it flow again
Let it flow again
I am
