

Shout It Out

Amy Rivard

Anger patiently boiling inside
Ready to break at any moment
But she hides it behind a smile
That is a lie and she cries
So it stews and it stirs
And the rage is ready to burst
So you've got to Shout it out at the top of your lungs
Shout it out to keep it down
Shout it out, all the anger in me
Shout it out, shout it out, shout it out Journal entry marked with a D
But he was told to write what he feels
"No good", she said "Doesn't make the grade."
Kid, I think you were a mistake"
So it stews and it stirs and the rage is ready to burst
So you've got to Shout it out at the top of your lungs
Shout it out to keep it down
Shout it out all the anger in me
Shout it out, shout it out Shout it out at the top of your lungs
Shout it out to keep it down
Shout it out all the anger in me
Shout it out, shout it out, shout it out The tears hid behind their eyes, like a dam waiting to break
A vicious ocean churned, watch out for the wake
So they ran to the field as fast as they could
As they felt the anger inside
And then a voice from somewhere tells you how to get by Shout it out at the top of your lungs
Shout it out to keep it down
Shout it out all the anger in me
Shout it Out, shout it out Shout it out at the top of your lungs
Shout it out to keep it down
Shout it out all the anger in me
Shout it Out, shout it out, shout it out
