Cease To Exist

Suicide Silence

I would drag myself through a mile of broken glass
Just to watch you cease to existLights out, go to sleep, I hope you never wake up
I want nothing more than toDestroy the moment in time that you came to life
I'm here to banish you
Now a hex on your life, sent to your death
I'm her to punish you, banish you
I would drag myself through a mile of broken glass
Just to watch you cease to existKnowing that your kind of grime
Has a place nested inside our worldI understand that your chance to live is trying to die
I will help youDestroy the moment in time that you came to life
I'm here to banish you
Now a hex on your life, sent to your death
I'm her to punish you, banish youI am here to banish you
I am here to punish you
I am here to banish you
Lights out, go to sleep, I hope you never wake up
I want nothing more than toDestroy the moment in time that you came to life
I'm here to banish you
Now a hex on your life, sent to your death
I'm her to punish you, banish you
I would drag myself through a mile of broken glass
Just to watch you cease to exist
I would drag myself through a mile of broken glass
Just to watch you cease to existCease to existI would drag myself Hell
I would drag myself Hell
Just to watch you cease to exist
